NORTH DAKOTA BANK JONAH
OF ADMINISTRATION SAYS
CHIEF JUSTICE ROBINSON

Suggests Throwing It to the Waves and Implies That John Steen Is "Tame Whale" to Swallow and Liquidate Jonah—Slash Taxes Urges League Jurist—Must Do Business He Declares "Or Go to Grass Like the Ox."

By Chief Justice Robinson
On our Ship of State there is a modern Jonah—the State Bank. The Lord has sent out a great wind and there is a mighty tempest in the sea so that the ship is likely to be broken unless Jonah be thrown overboard. The same Jonah, without any means of his own, has posed as a banker and gotten into his coffers all the public monies from every county and every corner of the state. He has put a large part of the money into long time loans on land into the coffers of bankers and parties that will never repay, and into buildings, mills and elevators. Now, the depositors demand their money and there is no payment.

HOW JONAH CLINGS
Jonah is several millions short and he will neither fish, cut bait, no go ashore, so the chances are that he will have to be thrown into the sea; but in the Treasury Department there appears to be a tame Whale with capacity sufficient to swallow and liquidate Jonah.

For many days the good solons of the state have been in session in Bismarck and all their time has been passed in contemplations of Jonah and his doling. The solons appear to have become hypnotized and like Bunyan's Pilgrim to have fallen into enchanted ground where they can move neither backward nor forward. And still the people look to their solons for some relief from the robber taxes which have been levied during the past three years. Most people do not like to be robbed. Under the laws of 1919 the assessments and taxes have been marked up to three times that of any former year. At a special session of the solons in 1920, after the special election in Towner county, the League solons lacked only one senator to carry a majority or two to one in each house. Then there was a demand to reduce by 50 percent the unjust taxes of 1919, but there was only a reduction of 25 percent from the state taxes. The result is that at the present session the League solons have no majority.

Left at Home.
Those who voted against a proper reduction of taxes were left at home to chew their cud and to eat grass like an ox, the same thing as King Nebuchadnezzar who saw the handwriting on the wall when it was too late. Now, if we clearly discern the signs of the times, there is no need of a modern Daniel to read and interpret the present handwriting. Clearly it portends that if the present solons go home without making a genuine effort to cut down the robber taxes of 1919 and 1920, then, many of the solons will be permitted to remain at home and for two or more seasons to eat grass like the ox.

Points the Way.
The way to remedy a wrong is to undo it; the way to reduce the unjust taxes is to cut them down in accordance with bills presented to the solons at the present session. Then if our good governor and others stand in the way of just reductions, there is a simple means of recalling and displacing them. By the constitution the people have the initiative, the referendum and the recall. They have power to make their own laws and to recall and discharge their public servants.

New Fangled Laws.
By the constitution of North Dakota all property must be assessed for taxation in the local district in which it is situated and all taxes must be limited to a small percent of the assessed valuations. But in 1919, by the tax supervisors and the state board of equalization the local assessments limitations were evaded. And then there was passed a set of new fangled tax laws providing for taxation of certain property without any assessment. Thus, motor vehicle taxes have been levied to the amount of nearly a million dollars a year and the money has been recklessly squandered. And on certain business industries, for accidental insurance, of employees, there has been levied a tax of nearly a million dollars a year, a sum ten times the amount necessary to pay the insurance. In that way many have been driven out of business and out of the state. And what is that but simple robbery in the guise of taxation?

Tax on Pool Halls.
On the pool hall and theatre business there has been levied a tax of over $50,000 a year and only 25 percent of it has found its way into the state treasury. Then there is an illegal tax on lawyers. They must pay taxes on their property the same as other people and at the same time pay for the privilege of living and trying to do business. Then there is an illegal income tax. A person who pays a tax on the assessed valuation of all his property and gets a little income must pay a tax on the income, and of course that is double taxation. A person having a constitutional right to have must have a right to obtain the means of living—a right to work, eat, drink and sleep without paying a tax. The tax system of 1919 must pull down and stand for grass any person who stands for it. Excessive taxation is robbery and it has always been the greatest curse of every state and nation. Surely there is no reason why the people should

Father of Movement to Bring Great Plains Station to Morton County

Andrew Thorberg, one of the best known pioneers of the Slope country, died suddenly this morning of heart failure. He was visiting friends last night and had not been sick.

Was Trapper in '77.
He is 64 years old and leaves a wife and eight children. E. A. Thorberg, a son, is a resident of Bismarck and was formerly connected with the state banking department.

Mr. Thorberg came to Mandan as a trapper in 1877. At the time of his death he was one of the owners of a department store at Mandan and was actively engaged in its management.

Originated State Plan.
He was keenly interested in the possibilities of farming in this territory and he initiated the movement which resulted in establishing the Northern Great Plains station near Mandan. This is the largest in acreage of all of the federal experiment stations.

He was the Mandan postmaster during President Harrison's administration.

Fargo, Feb. 24.—The city of Fargo brought further suit today against the Bank of North Dakota. Today garnishee papers were served on the Security National bank where city officials said they believed $11,000 of Bank of North Dakota funds were on deposit. This makes nine Cass county banks garnishees.

A check for $65,000 was returned yesterday. The city claims the city has over $100,000 on deposit.

President-elect Considers Proposed Plans of Reorganization

CONGRESS ALSO ACTS

Committee of Legislative Body Will Act With President's Commission

St. Augustine, Fla., Feb. 24.—With his cabinet completed, President-elect Harding is giving increasing attention to the first state administrative task he will undertake as president, reorganization of the executive machinery of the government. Delayed plans have not yet taken form but it is known that Mr. Harding has in mind sweeping changes in many of the government departments and bureaus and that he expects to enlist in the work of reorganization some of the ablest administrators he can find.

Work Important.
He is understood to have told some of his advisers that he regards the reorganization of the government as a par with cabinet portfolio. Congress has already appointed a committee to work out simplification of executive department with a view to cutting down government pay roll. It is believed that this committee will work in close co-operation with Mr. Harding's commission.

Public Welfare Department.
One of the biggest innovations to be proposed, was the establishment of a separate department of public welfare for which Mr. Harding outlined his plans in a general way during the campaign. This contemplates transferring several of the bureaus working under other departments to this new department and also to create new bureaus.

LAYER MURDER
CASE UP AGAIN;
ARRESTS NEAR?

Investigators From Attorney-General's Office Said in McLean County

Reports of impending arrests in connection with the Turtle Lake murder case are rife.

Persons representing the office of Attorney General Lemke have made mysterious trips to the Turtle Lake country, and admit that some action may be taken soon in the case.

Ever since Henry Layer was sentenced to life imprisonment in the penitentiary for the murder of eight people at Turtle Lake his relatives have made efforts to fasten the crime on others, claiming that Layer is innocent.

The action now being taken is independent of the McLean county authorities, it is said.

PROTESTS WINSLOW BILL.
Chicago, Feb. 24.—President M. Jewell of the railroad workers division of the American Federation of Labor wired President Wilson asking him to veto the Winslow bill, authorizing pay of money to railroads under guaranty provision of Cummins-Esch act.

INDEPENDENT BODY MEETING IN FARGO MAY DECIDE TO CARRY MEASURES TO PEOPLE

The so-called Independent program bills having been killed in the house of representatives, it is freely predicted in Independent circles today that the measures will be taken before the people of the state in an effort to initiate them into laws.

The measures which were rejected yesterday provide for a rural credits board, a new Industrial Commission, and the dissolution of the Bank of North Dakota. A depositary bill passed the house, but Nonpartisans will amend it in the senate. These measures, with a Nonpartisan state election law constitute what has generally come to be known as the program of Independents for the conduct of the business affairs of the state on a new basis.

The Committee of Twenty-one, which was organized previous to the fall campaign consisting of representatives of the Independent Voters Association, anti-Townley republican state committee and the democratic committee, was meeting in Fargo today to consider the political situation in the state. This committee was expected would discuss steps to place the measures before the people for a vote, and to discuss a recall election.

Leaguers Don't Bend.
Not until the measures were rejected in the house yesterday were the Nonpartisans committed to a stand of opposition to the proposals. The stand taken by the minority members of the house is taken to indicate that the final outcome of the discussion of the proposed liquidation of the Bank of North Dakota and transfer of the farm loan business of that bank to a rural credits board is that the league will retain its "no compromise" position and will stand up on the present laws and the record of the government charged with the carrying out of their provisions.

The measures rejected in the house all received a majority of votes, but since all except one, required a two-thirds majority they were defeated by the heavy Nonpartisan vote. The measures are:

House Bill No. 214, providing for the establishment of a rural credits system in North Dakota, the law being similar to that of South Dakota, and transfer of the farm loan business of the Bank of North Dakota to this board, was defeated, though the vote

Placing of Public Money in Private Banks, Accepted by League

The senate this morning passed the twin bills providing for the consolidation of the electric plants at the state capital and at the penitentiary and providing that electricity may be sold for private use.

The bills carry a provision for a bond issue totaling $250,000, to be known as state public utility bonds. Originally, the interest rate was fixed at 7 per cent but an amendment was passed this morning changing this to 6 per cent.

Introduces Bills.
The bills were introduced by Senator Liederbach of Dunn, who maintained that this action would be in the interest of economy.

Senator Mees' bill providing for a reclassification of property by the county commissioners passed.

The commission bills changing the Bottineau School of Forestry to a sanitarium for tuberculosis incurables were indefinitely postponed.

Reconsider S. 65.
The senate reconsidered Senate Bill 65 passed yesterday, amended it by changing the appropriation from $100,000 to $50,000. This bill provides for a revelation of the railroads by the railroad commission.

Other bills passed this morning were:

S. B. 197—Appropriating money for care of indigent patients.

S. B. 111—Relating to quorums at stockholders meetings.

S. B. 117—Act empowering the board of county commissioners of each county to designate depositories for county funds and providing the procedure and regulations thereof.

Will Make Many Changes in Conduct of Department of Commerce

New York, Feb. 24.—Herbert Hoover declared in a statement today that he had left it to President-elect Harding to decide whether he could be of more service as secretary of commerce or as director of European relief.

In a statement, he said: "I left it to Mr. Harding to consider whether I can be of more service to the public as secretary of commerce or carrying out the public trust already entrusted to me as a private citizen."

Mr. Hoover announced that he had put up to Mr. Harding a proposal for the general reconstruction of the department. He declared that he had undertaken the responsibility of the relief of $10,000,000 in Europe, money contributed, and he must continue to have general direction of that work.

"As the department of commerce stated today it consists largely of bureaus that have only a remote connection with commerce itself."

Urges Foreign Commerce.
"The foreign commerce of the United States especially in the next four or five years is closely bound up with the prosperity of this country."

He added that he expected that there will be a general reorganization of the government with the advent of the Harding administration.

Mr. Hoover said that he had not only taken the responsibility of expending millions of European relief upon which 3,000,000 children are depending but also, held the regency of eight or ten public institutions, posts which I could not readily relinquish.

Assistant Cashier of Security National Testifies at Hearing

Trubshaw Stands Pat

Paddock Fails to Shake Testimony of Times-Record Editor

E. L. Foukes, assistant cashier of the Security National Bank of Valley City, denied on the stand yesterday in the hearing of the senate investigation committee that to his knowledge an agreement existed between President Grady of the bank, and A. C. Towley relating to the keeping of funds of the State bank in his bank to offset loans made to the Nonpartisan league.

He testified that he had been instructed by President Grady, however, not to honor drafts from the Bank of North Dakota, and instead to write to the bank officials that "according to agreement we are returning draft so and so."

Cites Other C. D.'s.
He did not know what this agreement was but he understood that it was to be in effect until from $5,000 to $10,000 worth of certificates of deposit from other banks which they were holding were paid. He said that the bank was still holding one of these certificates for $2,250 from the American Exchange Bank of Watford City.

He attended the director's meeting when the notes of the five farmers came up but he did not hear, he declared, any statements which would give the impression that there was an agreement between Mr. Towley and Mr. Grady and he thought that Leo Cowell, chairman of the board of directors, and S. T. Ellis, director, were mistaken in their conclusions.

H. A. Paddock, secretary of the Industrial Commission questioned him as to whether his bank had had sufficient money on hand to meet the drafts turned back and still maintain his required reserve. He insisted that it did. The committee instructed him to return to Valley City and bring the statements showing the daily balances for a list of dates furnished by Mr. Paddock.

Aultman Called.
H. L. Aultman of Bishop, Brissman & Co., was the first witness called. He was questioned regarding a telegram sent to Bishop, Brissman & Co., requesting E. J. Bishop, and others to come to Bismarck, and others to come to Bismarck. Mr. Aultman said that he had seen the telegram but that Mr. Bishop did not say whether he was coming or not.

The last witness called was Percy R. Trubshaw, Valley City, editor and publisher of the Times-Record. Mr. Trubshaw on request of the committee brought copies of the paper for Oct. 14 and 23, containing the first references to the alleged Valley City deal. The articles were written in a vigorous and emphatic language, one of them closing with the statement that "G. Towley was the chief sachem of free love and Socialism."

Editor Retorts.
Mr. Paddock maneuvered long and craftily in an endeavor to trap the Barnes county editor into an admission that the article was false. He would ask if the statement made by such and such a person was true, and his article Mr. Trubshaw would come back flatly with the retort "fellow's statement but that he knew that his was the truth."

During his examination, Mr. Trubshaw remarked that he was standing on his published statement and that if it wasn't true those injured could seek recourse in the courts.

This led Senator Liederbach, chairman, to question him regarding his financial affairs.

"I always pay my bills," came back the sharp reply, "and I don't pay them in post dated checks either."

Mr. Sullivan referred to the third advertisement containing considerable testimony of M. W. Thatcher, of the Equitable Audit Company before the senate investigating committee.

Why Not Both Sides.
"If it was intended to give the truth wouldn't it be better to have given both sides of the Thatcher testimony, as a general proposition?" asked Mr. Sullivan.

"Yes, if you are paying taxes," said Mr. Hagan.

The witness was asked the section of the law on which the commission relied for authority to make the expenditure of money for advertising. Mr. Hagan read from the law and he declared the advertising was for the House Committee Inquires Into Payment of Commission Advertising

The fact became known today that the Industrial Commission is paying the salaries of two court reporters employed by the senate investigating committee, inquiring into state industry management.

An effort was made by counsel for the house committee to obtain this admission from John N. Hagan, member of the Industrial Commission, on the witness stand. Mr. Hagan refused to make a positive statement, but said he would be glad to produce the record tomorrow morning showing if any payment were made.

Following the hearing H. A. Paddock, secretary of the commission, said that the commission was paying the expenses of two reports for the senate investigating committee, and declared it was not a secret.

The effort of the house committee counsel along this line evidently was to show that the Industrial Commission was paying part of the expenses of an investigating committee supposed to be investigating the acts of the Industrial Commission itself and its agents, and that, therefore, it was not a secret.

That such an investigation would be anything except favorable to the Industrial Commission.

Mr. Hagan was asked about the full page advertisement which the Industrial Commission is having printed in various newspapers throughout the state. When the first took the stand Mr. Sullivan elicited information as to the appropriation made by the legislature for the Industrial Commission amounting to $200,000.

Advertising Authorized.
Mr. Hagan said that the advertising had been authorized by the Industrial Commission. Mr. Hagan said he thought the commission had contracted to pay for the advertising, and that the commission had authorized the secretary, H. A. Paddock, to make arrangements for the advertising. No limitation was placed upon the action of the secretary, Mr. Hagan thought. He was to investigate and report to the commission, which he did.

"Do you know whether it is true that the advertisement authorized by the Industrial Commission is sent out from Fargo to the league newspapers by the Publishers National Bureau?" Mr. Hagan said he did not, but thought it was done through a Minneapolis or St. Paul agency. Mr. Hagan said he had read but one advertisement after it was printed and that he believed he went all over it before it was printed.

He said he understood Rex Large, identified as of the Minneapolis Daily Star, Minneapolis Nonpartisan newspaper, assisted in the preparation of the advertising.

The witness declared that the advertising was not in his judgment, political advertising.

"Will It Get Votes."
"Do you think they would get votes for the Nonpartisan league?" he was asked.

"They are not written with the idea of getting votes," replied Mr. Hagan. "Is it not a fact that the purpose of the articles is the creating of public opinion in the state in favor of the present administration?" asked Mr. Sullivan.

"We want the people to know the truth," said Mr. Hagan.

Mr. Sullivan referred to the third advertisement containing considerable testimony of M. W. Thatcher, of the Equitable Audit Company before the senate investigating committee.

Why Not Both Sides.
"If it was intended to give the truth wouldn't it be better to have given both sides of the Thatcher testimony, as a general proposition?" asked Mr. Sullivan.

BISMARCK HELD IN LIMELIGHT IN THE HOUSE

Hospital Bill Brings Out Decided Difference of Opinions

ATTEMPT TO RECESS

Representative Del Patterson Against Holding on Holiday

After a stormy argument, the house of representatives advanced to third reading and final passage house bill No. 175, providing that hospitals shall not be exempt from taxation unless all physicians duly registered are permitted to practice in the hospitals.

The bill was to come up for final passage today. The bill was approved by an overwhelming vote in the house late yesterday afternoon.

The city of Bismarck was the center of the argument. It was alleged by opponents of the bill that it was aimed directly at the Bismarck hospital conducted by the Evangelical Association. This was denied by proponents of the bill, which was introduced and sponsored by Representative Shipley, of Stark county. Representative Starke, of Stark county, opposed the bill as vigorously as his colleague, Rep. Shipley, supported it, saying that hospitals' reputation depends upon the success in the institutions and that to allow any physician to come in the hospital, would destroy the reputation of many hospitals, built up through their selected staff of physicians. Rep. Shipley declared that the bill was aimed to prevent monopoly in hospitals regarded as public hospitals and accorded exemption from taxation as such.

Attempt to Adjourn.—The house disposed of many bills on Washington's birthday, in committee of the whole, while the senate was not in session. Representative Girdell Patterson made an effort to have the house recess, declaring it was wrong to hold a session on Washington's birthday, but his effort failed. No attempt was made to pass bills.

House bill No. 217, providing for the dissolution of the Bank of North Dakota, was approved by the house without debate, the Nonpartisans opposing it on a viva voce vote.

The house killed a bill repealing the three cent immunity tax levied under the hall insurance law.

Today was the last day for passage of house bills by the house and senate bills by the senate unless rules are suspended. For the remaining nine days the house will consider senate bills only and the senate will consider house bills.

The following bills were acted upon:

- H. B. 195—Providing for giving of notice before commencement of foreclosure proceedings. Indefinitely postponed.
- H. B. 84—Repealing that law of 1915, an act under hall insurance act. Indefinitely postponed.
- H. B. 85—Re-enacting and amending hall insurance law. Indefinitely postponed to make way for senate bills.
- H. B. 135—Regulating exchange charges to prohibit notaries from protesting unpaid items. Indefinitely postponed.
- H. B. 129—Empowering cities, villages and towns to purchase, construct, etc., high tension transmission lines. Indefinitely postponed.
- H. B. 175—Authorizing a special tax for the support of high schools. Indefinitely postponed.
- S. B. 27—Providing for increase in pay of election officials. Killed to provide way for passage of house bill with same provisions.

face, "Well, Governor, if anything happens to this bank, remember what I told you."

He said he didn't remember such a statement.

The witness said the obligations of the Scandinavian-American bank to the Bank of North Dakota amount to $428,000 at the present time.

"Would you, if you had been handling the matter entirely, would you have extended this credit to the Scandinavian-American bank?" asked Mr. Sullivan.

"No," replied the witness.

Conclusion Given.—

"Then the conclusion is that you were not permitted to use your own good judgment as to the credit given this bank?" asked Mr. Sullivan.

"To a certain extent."

"Then it is these other considerations, other than your own sound judgment, which are responsible for those loans?"

Mr. McAnaney said he was not trying to shift responsibility, but said that he would not have advanced the loans without consulting others.

Mr. Cattho was called to the stand. He was asked to produce the record of the deposits in the First State Bank of Walcott, and show the amount of Bank of North Dakota deposits on Oct. 22, 1919, the date of the return to the supreme court by O. E. Lofthus and M. W. Thatcher. On Oct. 27, 1920, the amount of redeposits were $20,800. There were no loans of that date, the witness said.

The individual ledger of the Farmers State Bank of Colfax was asked for. On Jan. 21, 1921 the Bank of North Dakota had on deposit about $23,000 and on June 22, 1920, the state bank had on deposit about $20,000.

Mr. Cattho asked permission to explain further, saying $10,600 was used and eight bond fund money of McLean county deposited in the Colfax bank. He said on the same date the bank had on deposit in the Bank of North Dakota, $5,000. Asked the liability of the bank at this time, the witness said he couldn't answer without verification.

Mr. Cattho was asked to make some deductions from the Bank of North Dakota's Feb. 15 statement.

Asked if the bank gave certificates of deposit to depositors of sinking funds, Mr. Cattho said not, but that a form of receipt was issued. Asked to the method of handling sinking funds Cattho said that the Bank of North Dakota acted in a "trust relationship" in holding the sinking funds.

Mr. Cattho said that under the bank's interpretation of the law county treasurers cannot draw out of bank sinking funds there on Dec. 3. He said that the law had provided that the funds be deposited in the Bank of North Dakota and that no law had been enacted providing for transfers.

Mr. Sullivan sought to get the difference between the application of the law to the sinking funds of initiated law to the sinking funds of counties and the demand for them.

Of the $3,700,000 sinking funds on deposit about $400,000 are state sinking funds, about $3,300,000 being political subdivision sinking funds. This $3,300,000, according to Mr. Cattho's interpretation of the law, cannot be withdrawn.

kota, many of which banks were over loaned to farmers, put them in a precarious condition and several of the banks closed their doors to prevent a crisis which for a time seemed inevitable.

"The circular letter referred to was not for the general public, it is claimed, and as it became known it brought alarm and led many banks to feel that the smaller farmer banks were being deliberately forced out of existence."

"But the changed policy of the federal reserve bank of the fifth district in repositing funds in North Dakota banks, stopped what might have been a serious condition for farmer state banks, as well as for all co-operative organizations in the state of North Dakota and the federal reserve bank is to be commended for the aid it gave at a critical time, which was doubtfully helped to save seven of the protected national banks of this state from serious failure."

Governor Frazier and Senator-elect Ladd are now in Washington, to confer with the executive committee of the American Federation of Labor regarding the loaning of considerable sums placed at around $8,000,000 to the state by labor unions.

House Appropriations Committee Adopts a Resolution

William Lemke, attorney general, is asked to appear before the house appropriations committee and explain why he is seeking contributions through the Courier-News to a fund he has asked for to aid in conducting the affairs of the office.

Mr. Lemke, asserting that the legislature had denied him funds to conduct the office, had asked for contributions through the Courier-News and has obtained a large fund. The resolution is as follows:

"WHEREAS, it is a matter of common knowledge that a campaign is being made throughout the state, ostensibly for the purpose of obtaining money for the attorney general's department by calling for popular subscriptions, and

"WHEREAS, it is not the desire of this committee that the attorney general's department should in any way be hampered in discharging its duties, and

"WHEREAS, the committee, after having made a careful survey of the matter, did conclude that by transferring to the attorney general's office a fund of nine thousand five hundred and fifty dollars ($9,500.00),

"Resolved, that the committee do authorize the attorney general to accept and use the sum of nine thousand five hundred and fifty dollars ($9,500.00) for the purpose of maintaining the office of the attorney general between this date and the first day of July the sum of approximately sixteen thousand dollars ($16,000.00), and

"Resolved, that the committee do authorize the attorney general to accept and use the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) for the purpose of maintaining the office of the attorney general between this date and the first day of July, 1921."

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the clerk of this committee be ordered and directed to respectfully request of the attorney general that he appear before this committee to show for what purpose a greater sum than sixteen thousand dollars ($16,000) is needed in that office between now and the first day of July, 1921, and to disclose to this committee the exact items of expense of his office that he expects to pay with the proceeds of the voluntary subscriptions for which appeals are now made for his office.

And further, that the attorney general be informed that if he can show that his office will need more than the said $16,000 for any purpose before July 1, or any of said sum is not available to him, that this committee (the appropriations committee or the house) do co-operate with his office in the matter of obtaining necessary funds for his office and that he make it necessary for him or anyone else to ask the supporters of the Nonpartisan league to make personal contributions for the maintenance of the attorney general's department, and thus be made to pay a greater part of the cost of operating said state government.

And that the amount that they and all other taxpayers pay in the form of taxes.

The Nonpartisans on the appropriations committee opposed the resolution.

KEOKUK CONTRACTOR TELLS OF BIG CHANGE

Sold House and Was About to Leave for Arizona Seeking Health When He Began Taking Tanlac—Gains 18 Pounds.

"I have just finished my seventh bottle of Tanlac and have gained eighteen pounds," said A. B. Strohmeyer, senior member of the firm of Strohmeyer Bros., cement contractors, a life-time resident of Keokuk, who lives at 412 N. Fourteenth Street, Keokuk, Iowa.

"I had me so scared about my condition," said Mr. Strohmeyer, "that I sold my home and was arranging to move to Arizona, but Tanlac has fixed me up so fine I don't feel in a hurry to leave now."

"Since Tanlac has built me up so wonderfully I don't believe there was anything more serious than matter with me than a bad stomach. I had indigestion for ten years and some time ago got to where I couldn't eat a thing without getting dizzy sick. I lost thirty pounds and was greatly worried."

"About this time I decided to try Tanlac, hoping it would improve my appetite and build me up. I have not been disappointed for I am eating fine and scarcely have a touch of indigestion. Tanlac has made life really worth living again and I certainly am thankful for having found this great medicine in time."

Tanlac is sold in Bismarck by Jos. Breslow, in Driscoll by N. D. and J. H. Barrette, in Wing by H. D. Homan, in Strasburg by Strasburg Drug Co.—Advt.

ROTARY CLUB CELEBRATES ITS ANNIVERSARY

The Bismarck Rotary club celebrates the sixteenth birthday of the international organization today at a dinner at the McKenzie.

The name "Rotary" was adopted by the original club in Chicago in 1905 because the club "rotated" their meetings among the business offices of the members.

The limited membership plan is one of the foundations of the Rotary's strength, and the international rotation exercise most careful selection before accepting a new club. There are no paid organizers, though there are now over 800 clubs with a membership of 65,000, many of the clubs being in foreign countries.

A unique situation with the international organization is that no Rotary club has ever surrendered its charter, and no club has failed to make good. They have a higher percentage of attendance of members at meetings than any other organization made up of business and professional men. The average attendance of all clubs in the United States and Canada in December being 73.5 percent.

The Bismarck Rotary club was organized in 1905 and now has 19 members, with E. D. Conkle as president. Some Rotary facts follow:

"First" club organized with four members in Chicago in 1905.

Name "Rotary" adopted, because original club rotated their meetings among business offices of members.

Limited membership plan is one of foundations of Rotary's strength.

Rotary has no "paid" organizers, and international association is "mighty particular" about accepting new clubs.

There are now over 800 clubs with a total membership of 65,000.

There are many Rotary clubs now in foreign countries.

No Rotary club has ever failed to make good, none has ever surrendered its charter.

Rotary principles and activities are based upon the belief that "He Profits Most Who Serves Best."

GILMAN STARTS GUESS CONTEST

There has been so much inquiry and speculation as to how large a number of Dodge Brothers cars are actually owned in Bismarck that M. B. Gilman Co., the local dealers, have decided to put on a contest open to everybody, for guessing the number.

Three cash prizes of $25.00, $15.00 and $10.00 are offered for either the first correct or nearest correct guesses, to reach the office at 212 Main Street. In the salesroom at 212 Main Street, in Bismarck, a map which helps in determining the actual number of cars, as each car is represented on this map by a tick.

As the number of cars change the map will be changed accordingly. This contest closes on March 21st and the person who guesses the correct number owned in Bismarck and who is first to get this guess delivered to the salesroom, will receive the first prize of $25.00 in cash, the second will receive $15.00 and the third, $10.00. Orders placed before the close of the contest, March 21st, for Dodge cars for delivery in Bismarck, will be counted and the map changed accordingly.

Coupons to be signed and delivered to the salesrooms at 212 Main Street, on which all guesses must be registered, and being delivered to homes and offices as quickly as possible. As these coupons with the guesses written on them, are received they will each one be stamped with the exact time received, and the first correct coupons which come in will

HOUSE, SENATE IN OPEN BREAK IN LEGISLATURE

Senate Slap at Speaker Twitchell is Followed by Reply
in the House

WANTED SPEAKER "TRIED"

Open warfare broke out between the senate and house of representatives this afternoon, starting in the senate when Senator Bowman, Non-partisan, made a motion to bring Speaker Twitcheil before the bar of the senate to explain charges of "gag rule" in the senate.

Staged in House.
The finale was staged in the house, where Speaker Twitcheil made a vigorous statement and reply.

Senator Bowman, rising in the senate, said that he wished to have the sergeant-at-arms instructed to bring Speaker Twitcheil of the house before the "bar of justice" of the senate to "publicly apologize for charges of gag rule in the senate." The discussion was over the house request for the return of two bills.

Senator Bowman declared the moving of the previous question, referred to as the gag rule, to shut off debate, had been moved in the house many more times than in the senate. He said the records showed the question had been moved but twice in the senate.

Treaty as Joke.
Senator Whitman moved the motion be laid on the table and Lieutenant Governor Wood declared the motion prevailed, although the "noes" clearly were in the majority, the president of the senate evidently treating Bowman's motion as a joke.

Speaker Twitcheil was present during this time. He came back to the house, took the speaker's chair and made a statement, declaring the senate had refused to return house bills Nos. 104 and 25 as asked for.

No. 104, "The request of the house to the senate for the return of house bill No. 104 ad house bill No. 25 has been refused."

"As stated by the chair from the floor of the house in making these motions, the purpose of the return of house bill No. 104 was for reconsideration and indefinite postponement of the measure, which, in the form it went to the senate placed all property subject to a valuation for taxation purposes at 100 per cent."

Purpose of Bill.
"The purpose of the return of house bill No. 25 as stated by the speaker from the floor, in making the motion, to exempt from taxation all structures and improvements on agricultural lands."

"The senate having had their attention called to the rule which provides that neither house shall return any bill of resolution called for by resolution of the other house, if the bill or resolution is yet in possession of the house called upon, and no action thereon has been had."

Speaker Explains.

GERMANY PLANS TO CAPTURE U. S. WITH MOVIES

Three generals of Germany's Motion Picture Army: Manja Tzatschew, called Germany's Theda Bara; Ernst Lubitsch (left) called Germany's D. W. Griffith, and Victor Plagge, called Germany's Charlie Chaplin.

BY HOWARD McLELLAN.

Managing Editor of the International Cinema Trade Review.

New York, Feb. 24.—Germany's invasion of America is getting under full headway.

Her weapon is the motion picture camera; her army is made up of movie writers, directors, actors—yes, and salesmen.

The only foreign country where film production is approaching the American standard is Germany.

When the war was going on, Germany developed her motion picture industry, foreseeing that some great agency must be pressed into service to regain her standing with the rest of the world. So the government helped to develop the motion picture as that agent.

In 1919, the first year after the war, 941 films were produced in Germany. Then her motion picture salesmen came to New York with a set of film masterpieces.

Italian, French, English and Swedish products had tried to penetrate the American market, but without avail.

The first German masterpiece, "Passion," was hawked about "Columbia Row" in New York for weeks.

Though "Passion" was pronounced a masterpiece, and the price was lower than American films of the same standard by half, exhibitors feared to purchase because of wartime publicity.

Finally, however, an organization of American motion picture theater owners purchased "Passion" and exhibited it in New York.

It broke all box office records.

When news of "Passion's" success reached Europe film producers began to swarm America with pictures.

Today there are thousands of German, Austrian, Italian, English, French and Swedish pictures on the market, but buyers are looking for a second "Passion." And so far haven't found it.

Germany's success in America is due to her film producers' policy of making only massive spectacles for foreign markets.

The next big German picture to be shown in America will be "Simurgh," the exotic Orient film, starring Pola Negri, running in "Passion." This will be followed by "Carmen" with the same star.

"Simurgh" is a masterpiece of spectacular production. The scenes were all taken in Germany, mostly in Berlin, and the director is Ernst Lubitsch.

called the "D. W. Griffith of Germany," who directed "Passion."

Immediately after the close of the war the German government is said to have offered D. W. Griffith $2,000,000 a year if he would go to Germany and supervise the motion picture industry. He refused, and Germany is pitting Lubitsch against him.

But spectacular productions are not the only kind of films being put out by Germany. Every industry—be it dairy, automobile, grain, agricultural implements, toys, etc.—has been filmed, and these short reels are being shipped to all parts of the world and offered gratis to theater owners.

The idea is to preach the doctrine of "Made in Germany."

Meanwhile Germany has put an embargo against all foreign films, including American, limiting them to 15 per cent of the total number shown on German screens.

France is "backward" with her picture productions. Financial interests in France do not support the new industry and today 90 per cent of the pictures shown on French screens are American.

In Great Britain the American picture still holds supremacy, but prominent Britishers like Lord Northcliffe, Lord Beaverbrook and Sir Thomas Lipton are backing British-made pictures and this year will see 75 per cent of the British screens showing British pictures, whereas in 1919 and 1920 British screens showed nearly 100 per cent of American pictures.

social may be interested in any contract with any board he was connected with, and that violation of the section was sufficient cause for removal of office, it being the conclusion drawn by counsel that Mr. Hagan had violated this law in accepting a farm loan contract and a home building contract while he was a member of the Industrial Commission, in charge of these industries. Mr. Hagan did not recall he had read this section of the law, and previously he stated that he did not know of any law that prohibited him from making these contracts.

Records Produced.
After a recess Mr. Hagan was recalled. In the meantime H. A. Paddock had been summoned with the records of the Industrial Commission as to the advertising and copies of papers containing it.

Mr. Hagan was asked, about his statement that the advertising was not political, and the first thing of one of the advertisements—reading "Political Conspiracy to Wreck the State Revenue." Just before this Mr. Hagan was asked if a single one of the advertisements contained any bit of the testimony before the house committee. The witness suggested that the advertisement would be the best record.

"Did you include anything about a farm loan being made to John H. Hagan?" asked Mr. Sullivan.

"No, but if you wish to advertise that fact I'll be glad to do so," cried Mr. Hagan. He made the same answer to a similar question about placing reference in the advertisements about his home being built by the Home Builders, saying he had no desire to conceal it.

Advertisements were produced showing the Industrial Commission in St. Paul. A letter said that several more advertisements would follow.

"How many more advertisements will follow?" Mr. Sullivan asked.

"As long as these industries are attacked by their enemies," Mr. Hagan replied.

Would Continue It.
"Then if it should continue long enough you might of spent all of the money left of the $180,000 left of this appropriation?" asked Mr. Sullivan.

"As far as I am concerned," replied Mr. Hagan. "As long as I am in my position I will defend these industries."

A list of newspapers, totaling 98, to which the advertising was sent, was shown.

"Did the Industrial Commission know how much this would cost?" asked Mr. Sullivan.

Mr. Hagan said that this was left to the secretary, to be placed at usual rates and the commission figured about 100 newspapers would carry the information to the people of the state.

Read Letters.
A letter from Mr. Paddock to Mr. Arrhus of the Publishers National Service Bureau stating that in re-response to a request of Mr. Meitzen for warrants that Arrhus submit copies of papers with proper statement. Another letter was to E. R. Meitzen, of the North Dakota Leader, regarding rate for the advertisement in the North Dakota Leader, and another letter to Meitzen by Paddock complaining of the rate asked for advertising in the Volke-Reigerer, and a letter from this paper and the North Dakota Leader stating, through Meitzen, stating they were in need of funds and asking for a "cashable check." A bill for $400 for one-page advertisement in the foreign language paper was read.

Another was to the Western Newspaper Union in Fargo asking it to make plates for 50 newspapers and send them to the Publishers Service Bureau and another to the Minneapolis agency for a list of about 45 newspapers.

The Publishers National Service Bureau wrote a letter to Mr. Paddock stating that it was agent for 50 farmer-owned newspapers, 32 official, in the state and quoted a rate of 29 cents per column inch, or for the entire, about $14.50 per column inch. One page in the 50 newspapers would cost the Industrial Commission $1,740, the letter said. The letter

Rotary Prizes IN CITIZENSHIP

The Rotary club held its anniversary dinner yesterday noon in the parlor of the McKenzie, with every place at the table filled. The club has a membership of 38 and covers were laid and 35 members and four guests were present.

President F. L. Conklin turned the meeting over to L. K. Thompson of the "So."

Because of the period of Washington's birthday, the program was arranged to celebrate the event. A large picture of Washington adorned a wall of the room, draped in an American flag. The table was gay in its decoration of flags and patriotism was in the air and in the hearts of the guests.

J. Leonard Bell, vice president of the First National bank, spoke on Washington as a soldier, followed by an address by Judge Christianson of the supreme court on Washington as a statesman.

One of the outstanding features of the work of the Rotary club is that of the promotion of patriotism and good citizenship. As an incentive, the club has offered first and second prizes to the students of the senior and junior classes in high school and eighth-grade for excellence in the subjects of civics and American history, respectively. At the dinner yesterday, Doctor Eric P. Quinn gave a report of the committee on the result of the contest in the senior class. First prize was awarded Miss Edith Rupp, second to Bruce Wallace, and a special to Miss Edna Rupp because her paper was so nearly of the same excellence as that of the winner of second.

At the next meeting of the club the report of contests in other classes will be given, and the anniversary program, which had to be held over for lack of time, will be carried out.

One of the established customs of the club is to open every meeting with the singing of America, and the club was entirely in accord with National Song Week in its singing yesterday.

PRETTY BIRTHDAY PARTY.
Mrs. R. B. Loubek entertained five little guests yesterday afternoon in honor of the fifth birthday anniversary of her little daughter, Evelyn. Red and white made up the gay color scheme in the rooms and the splendid white birthday cake had five red candles to celebrate the event. Lunch was served by Mrs. Loubek. The children played and had music during their play hour of the afternoon.

MRS. MOSES HOSTESS.
Mrs. C. W. Moses was hostess yesterday afternoon to the Current Events Club. Mrs. E. T. Burke discussed the Interchurch World Movement. Mrs. Alfred Zuger talked on the Bible as an inspiration in Art, and Mrs. Lenhart read a paper on the Poetry and Music of the Bible. Following the program the hostess served a "Colonial" lunch of pie, doughnuts and coffee.

LUNCHEON AT McKENZIE.
A luncheon was given at the McKenzie hotel today by Mrs. Howard Wood, Mrs. Eckhart, Mrs. E. A. Bowman and Mrs. Steve Terhorst. Thirty guests were present. An elaborate four-course dinner was served. Decorations were Liberty bells.

Be sure and attend the supper given by the men of the Baptist church in the basement of the church at 5:30 p. m. today. Price 75c. Everybody welcome.

Today's Beauty Help

We find you can bring out the beauty of your hair to its very best advantage by washing it with canthrox. It makes a very simple, inexpensive shampoo, which cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly of all the dandruff, dirt and excess oil leaving a wonderfully clean, wholesome feeling. After its use, you will find that the hair dries quickly and evenly, is never streaked in appearance and is always bright, soft and fluffy; so fluffy, in fact, that it looks more abundant than it is, and so soft that arranging it becomes a pleasure. Just use a teaspoonful of canthrox, which you can get from any good druggist, dissolve it in a cup of hot water; this makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head.

U. S. OFFICIALS DENY REPORT OF YAP APPROVAL

Washington Makes Firm Denial of All British and French Contentions

DEFINES CONTROVERSY

Not One Between Japan and the United States, Declare Officials

Washington, Feb. 24.—The state officials referring today to the American note said that the controversy concerning the island of Yap was not one between the United States and Japan but one between the United States and the powers. In regard to the alleged contention by the British and French that the United States had consented to Japanese mandate over the island, said that the United States officials were the best judge of that.

Give Summary.

Paris, Feb. 24.—The council of the League of Nations decided last night to give out only a summary of the American note regarding mandates under the league; the text of which was submitted to the council this morning. The summary follows:

"The government of the United States declares it seizes the occasion to send the council of the league a copy of a note addressed to Earl Curzon, British foreign minister, on November 20, setting forth in detail the views of the United States on the responsibilities of mandatory powers.

Insists on Viewing Acts.

"A copy of that note has been sent to the French and Italian governments. The United States government draws the attention of the council to the request made in that note that the projects of mandates intended for the society of nations, before they were submitted to the council, be communicated to the United States government and that it have precise indications of the principles on which the United States conditioned its approbation.

"The United States government has received the text of the mandate attributed to the emperor of Japan over all former German islands situated in the Pacific ocean north of the equator, which text was approved by the council of the league December 17 in Geneva.

"The United States government declares it has never given its consent that the island of Yap be included in the territories subjected to the mandate of Japan.

Protests Yap's Inclusion.

"It recalls that it has already so informed the governments of Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan, informing them at the same time that its reservation rests upon the opinion that Yap enters necessarily into any project or system of practical communication by cable in the Pacific and that no power can limit or control its use.

"Consequently the United States government is moved to declare respectfully that it cannot regard itself as bound by the terms of said mandates and desires particularly that note be taken of its protest against the decision of the league council of December 17 upon this question. "At the same time it asks the council, whose action resulted evidently from an incorrect representation of the facts, to submit the question to a new investigation which an equitable solution requires.

A Friend of the Family

Over fifty years ago a young physician practiced widely in Pennsylvania and became famous for his uniform success in the curing of disease. This was Dr. R. V. Pierce who afterwards established himself in Buffalo, N. Y., and placed one of his prescriptions, which he called his "Golden Medical Discovery," in the drug stores of the United States so that the public could easily obtain this very remarkable tonic, corrective, and blood-maker. Dr. Pierce manufactured this "Discovery" from roots and barks without alcohol—a corrective remedy, the ingredients of which nature had put in the fields and forests, for keeping us healthy. Introduce pure red blood into the system, and health is assured. When you feel run-down, out of sorts, blue and despondent try the energizing influence of this reliable tonic. You can obtain Golden Medical Discovery in tablet or liquid form at all drug stores, or send 10c for a trial package to Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Buffalo, N. Y.

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
(Established 1873)

A WORD TO THE PESSIMISTS

Politicians spurred on by the hope of climbing into office through the debacle of the present administration have organized a gloom squad—trained pessimists who go about predicting dire disaster, yes complete bankruptcy within the next two months.

The Tribune will admit that governmental conditions need prompt remedies, but North Dakota as a business entity is far from bankrupt. Townley and his henchmen have not taken from us the fertility of our soil. Our cattle on a thousand hills continue to multiply and yield some dividends to the farmers.

Those who whisper behind their hands that this bank is about to close up—that another institution is on the verge of collapse—are also enemies of the state in this present crisis.

In the same class is the banker who sits in his office and tells his clients that everything is going to smash. North Dakota is not going to smash and the fact that a crowd of politicians have squandered some public money, does not spell disaster for the entire state.

Conditions cannot be ameliorated by trying to create a panic. Both political factions in the heat of the fray have engaged in unfortunate tactics. The results have been destructive, not constructive.

The day of reckoning is coming. Conditions will be cleaned up only when the people realize the absolute futility of the whole industrial scheme. But the practice of mild socialism through the agency of ex-leaders, who fell out with the "main pipes" because they no longer enjoyed the swag will not cure our ills. We had better stew in our own juice a little longer until a real leader is sent us to clean house properly. Let's get out of the ditch completely at one jump.

The men who once sponsored the league propaganda are welcome on the mourners' bench—they should remain there through a period of probation before they aspire to leadership. These men who went in with Townley six years ago to save their political faces and cling to their jobs, rebelled not over fundamentals, but merely over who should handle the political pap. Now the very same men have been called to lofty seats in the councils of the independents and, again to save their political faces, they seek to cram down the throats of the voters a program of modified Townleyism.

A recall championed by these men might succeed in the face of the public indignation over the present situation, but it's a long, long way to Tipperary—and unless the socialists in the ranks of the independents are dethroned, the state will only slip out of the control of one faction to that of another. Let these new converts renounce state socialism in toto, if they expect those who always opposed the Townley program to take them seriously.

"BORDERLAND DEFECTIVES"

Dr. William J. Hickson, criminologist, has given a name to the most troublesome class of people in the world.

The men who resort to crime when they are out of work, who desert their families, impose upon their friends, are a burden upon others from the cradle to the grave—these are "borderland defectives."

They cry out that "the world is against them."

And it is. Nature is against them, because they are inefficient and anti-social. Science can view them with detached understanding, their mothers can pity them, but everybody else dislikes them.

When the shiftless youth with a morbid twist in his mind, a taint in his soul and bitterness in his heart comes along, he brings woe with him.

To confine all the borderland defectives would be impossible.

Improving conditions of living and thinking among all classes of people is the one sure way to get rid of them.

This will be the work of generations.

SEEING AMERICA ABROAD.

Motion picture films exported from the United States last year aggregated 47,000 miles in length, almost enough to encircle the globe twice. Fine business for America picture producers!

But that isn't the only thing it means. American films mostly picture American life. American people in American cities, fields, shops, homes. Often they are not faithful portraits, but, in the main, they give the audience a fairly accurate idea of what America and Americans are like.

This being so, you can see how it is that, as the export of these films mounts higher and higher, going farther and farther round the globe, the time is coming when natives of distant lands will have an eye witness knowledge of Americans and the way we live, work and play.

In other words, the export film is making it possible for the "wild man of Borneo," the Hot-tentot, the Mongol, the Tartar, and the more knowing European, to see America without crossing oceans.

As the films penetrate jungle, climb mountains spread over tropics and slide over arctic ices, it becomes more and more true that no country is as well known the world over as the United States; that no people are seen by so many as the Americans.

PARENTS, TALK TO THE TAXERS!

Assemblyman Theodore Roosevelt urges increasing the New York income tax exemption for children from $200 to $500.

While New Yorkers only will benefit by this Rooseveltian legislation if Teddy, Junior, puts it through, Congress may be induced to take it up and extend it to the nation.

"An exemption of $500 for each child is little enough," says T. R., Second, "with food and clothing costing what they do today."

Col. Roosevelt is a father, and knows the facts about the high cost of rearing children.

When the next Congress is framing the new revenue bill, fathers and mothers should keep this exemption demand right up front.

NOTHING DOING!

An urgent S. O. S. call comes from Germany to the United States. It has occurred to about two million forlorn fraulens that the American men, who made such brave fighters would also make excellent husbands.

It might not be difficult to find two million marriageable men in this country, but to find two million who were willing to answer the call would be a different matter.

Also, we have an equal number of American girls who want husbands.

Hence we see little prospect for any relief from this quarter. However, there is one highly commendable feature of the situation and that is the good taste shown in choosing American men. We thank them, even while we decline the honor.

Jack Johnson may have a better chance to get into condition in the pen than Jess Willard on a farm.

The school teacher who married the janitor was probably dazzled by the thoughts of comparative luxury.

Fortunately the incoming officeholders will leave civilian jobs behind them for the outdoors to hustle for.

Foreign travel is fascinating to some because the difference in exchange makes 'em seem richer than they are.

EDITORIAL REVIEW

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

THE RECALL ELECTION

No good lawyer skims through the evidence in order to get his case to the jury quickly.

No sensible lawyer cuts short his summing up of the testimony and leaves out essential points, just because he is in a hurry to hear the jury's verdict.

He knows there will be no opportunity to go back and cover points he has missed, or to correct mistakes in his argument after the jury has retired.

That is the situation with respect to the recall election in North Dakota.

This is a very good time to "make haste slowly" in regard to the recall.

We are busy at present, presenting the evidence to the jury. It isn't half in yet. The story of the Bank of North Dakota is not complete, and we still have to come the evidence in regard to the other state industries. Let's go to the jury with the whole case—not just a part of it.

A recall election is not an enterprise to be undertaken lightly or thoughtlessly. It involves a heavy expense. It seems necessary now, but if we are to have it, let us undertake it only after we have given the plans for it most careful study.

The first step is to complete the investigation and get it before the people of the state in the form of sworn testimony the whole story of the ghastly failure the present administration has made of the state industrial program.

Then the plan of attack must be considered.

As long as the administration continues its policy of "sitting tight" in the face of such conditions as now confront us, a recall election is an absolute necessity, but it must be carefully planned, and vigorously and efficiently conducted. This isn't the time for half thought out plans, counsel and calm judgment are needed.

And above all things, any man who sticks his head up seeking to promote his own political fortunes should convict himself in advance of being an "undesirable citizen" so far as the present crisis is concerned.—Fargo Forum.

ment. All he did was to say, "Will-o-the-wisps, come out!" And instantly a dozen or so little balls of light appeared from nowhere. What a wonderful transformation it made! The walls and ceiling and floor became red, gleaming masses of clear, deep red.

"Oh!" gasped Nancy. "How beautiful!"

"Yes, 'tis nice!" said the poodle rather offhand. "Ruby all of it. Belongs to Snitcher-Snatch, the wicked fairy who enchanted me. Good thing, I'll say, that he made me the size of a house. Want to hear me growl?"

"Yes!"

Then followed such a thundering that the earth shook. Nancy grabbed Nick in alarm, and the green bullfrogs of his teeth rattled—no, not his teeth. It must have been his bones. "No, I don't," the dog contradicted himself. "Even if I am French. Wait a minute children. Do you want a ruby?"

"I—I'd love it," faltered Nancy, "if you think it's all right."

Pierre de Pierrot snapped his huge jaws, and a lump as large as a watermelon rolled to the little girl's feet. "With my compliments," said the dog scrapping a fine bow.

But neither Nancy nor Nick could lift the ruby.

"Better leave it until you come back from your journey to the South Pole," suggested Pierre. "And now you'd better take your Golden Key and unlock my other door. The next place is the Room of Emeralds. It's guarded by the Cockatoo."

Awake from that mental bondage that ties your mind to bottomless pits, to depressed governments; to tyranny and injustice toward the cause of humanity. Oh! Recall! The instrument of justice. Has time changed you, dazzled and crazed you from the zenith you once held in the universe? Recall! Recall! Art thou crazed beyond appeal? Appeal for the sublime cause of humanity. Do let us appeal to you now, once and forever.

NERVE-SPEED WHEN NEEDED

Lack of Reserve Force Cause of Most Failures in the Daily Affairs of Life

To feel weary without having earned it by hard work throws the mind into disorder and confusion.

A hundred people describing their weary condition would each tell it differently. One can't think; another is drowsy; the next feels weak; others are irritable, moody, depressed, apprehensive, as the case may be. To this great class of sufferers comes Reolo, one of the grandest reconstructive agencies ever devised for definite accomplishment. It intensifies the activity of the vital processes, provokes increased flesh, stimulates the production of red corpuscles, contributes to the defense of the system against depletion and consequent exhaustion and in many other ways arouses the functional processes to make you feel that something has touched that one flickering vital spark you thought was about to go out. No amount of description can adequately convey the difference between the feeling of lack of nerve speed and the rebound, the freedom, the liberation from depressions that cause so many men and women to fall in their tracks. Go to sleep at the switch or stand still when the order is to go ahead. If you would really like to get acquainted with your real self get a $100 box of Reolo today. Ask any of the clerks at Finney's Drug Store or any other leading drug store.

Swiss Father Buys Detective Bureau for False Recommendation of Daughter's Suitor.

Geneva.—M. Wader, a wealthy resident of Bienne, Switzerland, has just sued a detective agency for wrongly recommending a man as husband for his daughter and has obtained a verdict of 140 pounds, with costs, against the agency.

The prospective father-in-law engaged the agency at a cost of 500 pounds to investigate the reputation and habits of the young man who had asked for the hand of his daughter. The detectives reported that the youth was worthy, reliable and sober. After six months of wedded life, the bride returned to her father's home with the information that the bridegroom has dissipated her dowry in riotous living and gambling.

Three Meals Means Wife Does 2-Mile Walk Daily

Montgomery, Ala.—Preparation of meals for an average family means a two-mile daily kitchen marathon for the housewife, according to statistics compiled for the conference of vocational workers of the south, in session here. A pedometer attached to students in the kitchen of the model home at Livingston School showed this measurement: from the stove-sink and pantry route covered during the period from bacon and eggs to dinner and dessert.

German Residents in Paris.

Paris.—Germans to the number of 1,965 have succeeded in obtaining permission to reside here, according to the Prefecture of Police registration of foreigners in Paris. Italians lead the list with 41,850, while the United States is fifth with 23,630. Other nationalities include 38,660 Belgians, 29,000 Swiss, 27,450 English, 23,000 Russians and 14,000 Poles. There are 88 Austrians and 254 Bulgarians besides 7,822 South and Central Americans.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, laryngitis, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way you get a full pint—a family's worth—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and high concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

"SNAKE BITE" CURE HIS FEE
Doctor Takes Home Jug Unsuspected by Man Who Thought Snake Had Bitten Him.

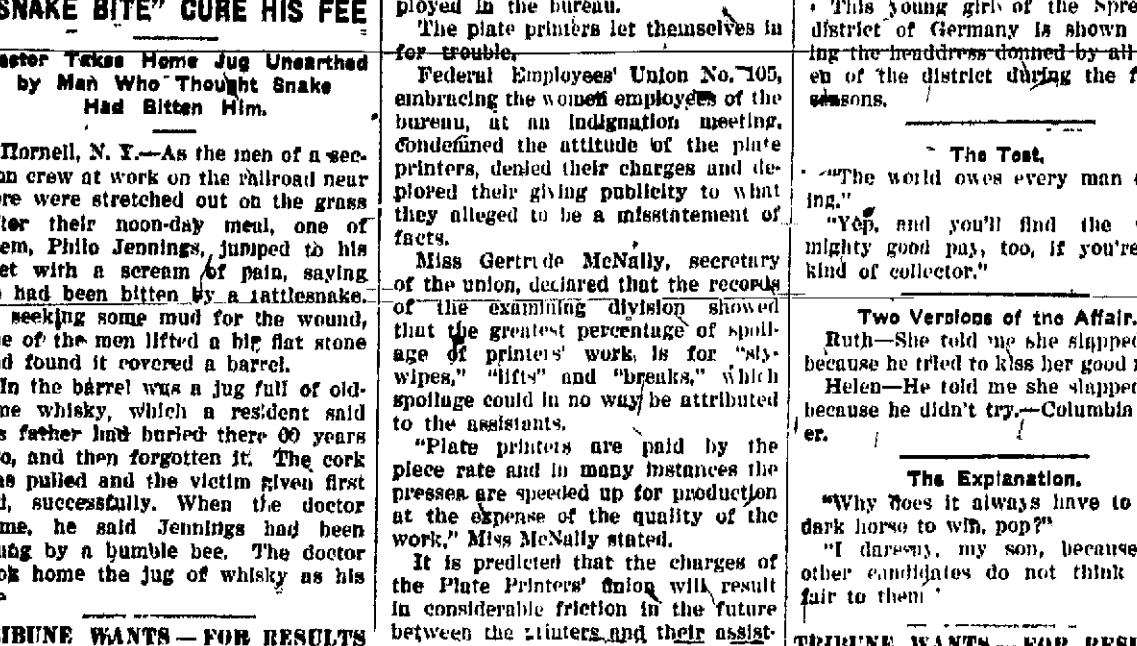

It is the story of a section crew at work on the railroad near here were stretched out on the grass after their noon-day meal, one of them, Phil Jennings, jumped to his feet with a scream of pain, saying he had been bitten by a rattlesnake.

In seeking some mud for the wound, one of the men lifted a big flat stone and found it covered a barrel.

In the barrel was a jug full of old-time whisky, which a resident said his father had buried there 60 years ago, and then forgotten it. The cork was pulled and the victim given first aid, successfully. When the doctor came, he said Jennings had been stung by a pumble bee. The doctor took home the jug of whisky as his fee.

COMES BACK AND PAYS HIS DEBTS

Former Broker Whose Firm Collapsed Springs Surprise in Old Home Town.

THOUGHT IT A HOAX

But Big Checks Convince Skeptics That Still Are Honest Men—Only Regret Is He Can't Find Them All.

Chester, Pa.—A dapper little man of 50, whose hair was tinged with gray of battles fought and lost, alighted from a train in this city recently for the purpose of driving away the clouds and mist that he feared had enveloped his name. He was L. T. Layton, of the one-time brokerage firm of L. T. Layton & Co. of this city, which occupied a more or less pretentious office at Third and Market streets and took an occasional "flyer" in the feverish pursuit of gold.

"The Old Story." The firm's vicissitudes furnished all the color for the old story. It started out with a promising future, gathered about it a worth-while and financially well-fixed clientele, and then, just when skies seemed to be brightest, broke in the middle. Almost two years ago L. T. Layton slipped away from here, dismayed and downcast, after he had paid to most of his creditors, in that vain effort that a falling man makes, something like 50 cents on the dollar.

But L. T. Layton came back here from his home in Philadelphia to pay to those creditors every penny that he owed them. Prominent business and professional men who had lost varying sums of money by the failure of the brokerage firm gathered together to receive payment in full. There were a dozen or more in all, six of them physicians, and the total reimbursement was approximately $10,000.

Not Legally Indebted.—One of the creditors who vouchsafed the information that it was a fairy story or a hoax when he received a mysterious message that a gentleman was in town who had a check for $800 or $900 for him. It came from the office of a doctor, a friend, over the phone.

Federal Employees' Union No. 105, embracing the women employees of the bureau, at an indignation meeting, condemned the attitude of the printers, denied their charges and deplored their giving publicity to what they alleged to be a misstatement of facts.

Miss Gertrude McNally, secretary of the union, declared that the records of the examining division showed that the greatest percentage of spoilage of printers' work is for "wipes," "lifts" and "breaks," which spoilage could in no way be attributed to the assistants.

"Plate printers are paid by the piece rate and in many instances the presses are speeded up for production at the expense of the quality of the work," Miss McNally stated.

It is predicted that the charges of the Plate Printers' union will result in considerable friction in the future between the printers and their assistants.

ALLOWED FATHER TO HANG.
Son, Stunned by an Evangelist, Concedes That It Was He Who Killed Mother.

Ceylon, Jan.—Evangelistic sermons held in his home town so stirred Arnel Love, a twenty-two year old farmer of Ceylon, Canada, that he went forward and declared to the evangelist, Rev. C. N. Sharpe, that he had clubbed his mother to death seven years ago because she reprimanded him for "keeping bad company."

Love's father, Henry Love, who was convicted by a jury and hanged at Owen Sound, Ontario, for the crime seven years ago was found guilty principally through the testimony of his son. Who now says he was the murderer. While on the scaffold he made a confession of what was believed to be a confession of his guilt.

The son grew up into a man of a prosperous farmer, and the tragedy of his life was apparently buried in the oblivion of the past until he attended the evangelistic service. He told the evangelist that he killed his mother with a stick of wood and hid the body in the cellar, where it was found later.

MASTER AND DOG SAVE 304 LIVES

Partners in Work of Mercy in the Great American Deserts.

IS VICTIM OF POISON

Faithful Dog Refuses to Owner From Polluted Spring, but Owner Does and Loses His Life—To Have Monument.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Lou Westcott Beck of Pasadena, Cal., and his dog, Rufus, are dead, after being partners in a work of mercy for 13 years. Beck laid down his life, a martyr to his work, dying as a result of drinking from a poisoned spring at the edge of the desert. Rufus lingered for three years, watching for his partner, who, for the first time, had gone on the long, long trail without him. Then he started out to find him.

During the 13 years of their partnership, the man and the dog rescued 304 persons from death by thirst and exhaustion in the great American deserts—the Colorado, the Mojave and, worst of all, Death valley. Friends of the desert victim and his four-footed partner will erect a monument to them in Brookside park, Pasadena.

Lost Fourteen Years Ago.
It was 14 years ago that Beck, a Chicago man, prospecting in Death valley, was lost in that inferno of shifting sand, maddening heat and deceptive mirages. With him was his dog, Rufus, a strong, intelligent animal, a cross between a Siberian bloodhound and a St. Bernard. There were no sign posts in the deserts in those days, nothing to guide the traveler to the water holes, nothing to warn against poisoned springs. The man and the dog were almost dead when they finally crawled to a water hole, drank the brackish water and staggered on and finally out of the desert.

Since that terrible experience, the man made heroic work in the desert his life task, and, with his faithful dog, saved hundreds. But fate finally overtook them when, again lost in the desert, Beck found a poison well. The man, Beck, but the dog refused.

It was a terrible trip home and when it was ended Lou Beck went to bed, never to rise again. The dog, heartbroken over the loss of his master, drooped and drooped, until now he too is dead but with a long record of service behind him.

HANDLESS CUE WONDER MAKES NEW HIGH RUN

TRY—TRY—TRY.
Do you complain because you can't do all you wish with your two hands?
Then what would you do if you were without hands?
The never-say-die spirit has made George H. Sutton, who has no hands, one of the greatest billiard stars.
Maybe you don't practice as constantly to perfect your work as you should.
Perhaps you quit trying too soon.
Sutton never would have made the world's high run in billiards if he had been a quitter.
Neither will you set any records unless you try—try—try.

By DEAN SNYDER.
Handleless George H. Sutton is out to set as high a run at 18.2 ballline billiards—officially as he did unofficially.
Sutton set a new unofficial record of 799 points in a single inning, Feb. 17 at New York.
The man took three hours to make. This tops the recent high exhibition record of 701 points made by Edouard Horemans, visiting Belgian and chief challenger for Willie Hoppe's cue throne.

Chuck-Nursing.
In his record-setting run Sutton got the balls in the old chuck-nurse position after scoring 200 points.
From the cue with one ball anchored to the rail and the other one across the ballline just outside the box, he kept bouncing the cue ball off the rail ball, feather touching the other ball so it didn't move.
Two points from the 800 mark Sutton broke the chuck-nurse combination. He intended to stop on 800 and leave a good final shot. He missed and stopped on 799.

Unbearable Strain.
The strain on my eyes grew almost unbearable, says Sutton.
I had to stop and close them after every 25 points.
"Some day I'll get that combination in a championship match and put a new mark in the billiard record book."
Confidence in self is the greatest asset of a billiard player.
"For every position of the balls on the table there is a correct way to play them."
I lost both forearms in a machinery accident when I was 8.
"But I couldn't give up. I studied medicine at Milwaukee. It was there I first began playing."
After finishing my medical education I was in debt.

George H. Sutton

Then I turned to billiards to make money. It's my whole life now.
Never-Say-Die.
My handicap only made me more determined.
"If I had not lost my hands, I wouldn't have become a great player. There would have been too many other things I could and would have done."
"People call me the handleless wonder."
"I'm handleless but not wonderful. No billiard player is. He's just made himself a great player by constant practice."
"And anyone can do that."
Funny thing about Leonard's Rayo victims. They all want back in the ring with him and get the chance.

CASSELTON TO MEET BISMARCK QUINTET HERE

High School Team to Play in Local Gymnasium on Friday Night

Bismarck high school meets an old rival, Casselton high school, at basketball here Friday night in the high school gymnasium.
Unusual interest obtains among high school enthusiasts over this game because the Casselton team has victories chalked up to its credit for the last three years, and because Coach Aseltine, of the Bismarck high school, coached the Casselton team before coming here. Three years ago Coach Aseltine's Casselton boys defeated Bismarck, 29 to 8, and the local team is out to turn the tables.
Casselton has done well this year, losing to the fast Valley City team by only one point and winning one game from Fargo and defeating many other high school teams.
The game is slated at 8:30 p. m. Friday night.

SEASON'S BEST FRIEND.
Each year brings its season's best find to baseball.
Last year's Lanky Bob Meusel came up to the Yanks—young, capable, a great hitter of Babe Ruth caliber and power.
Meusel was called the season's best find.
Later in the year Walter Mails came up to the Cleveland Indians just in time to clinch the pennant and assist in making them world's champs.
Just now before new talent is explored in the training camps the question arises as to who will be the find of the coming year.
Will he be a Ruth or Cobb or Johnson?
That's what makes it interesting—the waiting and the doping it out.

Today practically all rookies are well educated and well mannered.
Many have arrived before they hit the big time in the knowledge of the game.
This is due to the caliber of ball played in the minors and to the increasing number of recruits from college lineups.
Most hayseeds blow out of big league ball faster than they blew in.
Few of them come up from the hills with bare feet.
Baseball is a man's game now. It has progressed far as regards the mental caliber of those who play it.
Yet the word rookie will always stick.

Cuba Sends Athletes

(N. E. A. Staff Special.)
Miami Beach, Fla., Feb. 24.—Cuban athletes are planning an invasion.
They're bringing polo teams, golf cracker tennis stars and swimming marvels.
A week's tournament opens here on Washington's birthday.
The visit is the outgrowth of polo play between tourist Cubans and Americans two years ago.
President Menocal has tendered the use of the presidential yacht, Hatuey, to bring the athletes across.
The golf course, at the new Miami Country club, is one of the hardest to negotiate in the country.
One of the water holes is an island to island shot—a 140-yard jump. Another hole has water on three sides.

KEEPS PICTURE BOOK.

New York, Feb. 24.—Tex Rickard is returning many checks received from fans who figured Dempsey and Willard would get together in March as originally planned. Tex places the orders down in a big book for future reference.

KITCHEN MENDING.

Equal parts of soft putty, sifted coal ashes and table salt mixed together make a cement for mending kitchen utensils. Cover the holes well and put the dish with a little water in it on the stove and the cement will become as hard as enamel.

THE EASY WAY.

Want to wind a skein of yarn? Place two flatrons on the table as far apart as the length of the skein and slip the yarn over them. Then wind.

"Pape's Cold Compound" Breaks any Cold in a Few Hours

Instant Relief! Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! A dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken usually breaks any cold right up.
The first dose opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages of head; stops nose running; relieves headache, dizziness, feverishness, sneezing.
"Pape's Cold Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and costs only a few cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance. Tastes nice. Contains no quinine. Insist upon Pape's.

Telling Things Everyone Should Know About Perfect Printing

BELIEVE us when we say that we are better equipped than ever before to give each and every individual order for printing the neatness it requires.

Because every sheet of paper we print is bound to be printed perfectly by our Automatic Air Pressure Feeders, and you will never find a crooked or imperfect printed sheet of paper that always happens with hand fed sheets. If a sheet of paper is slow in traveling to the Gauge Pins for perfect printing and it fails to reach its correct destination, right away a warning is sent out from the Automatic which rings a bell so the machine tender knows something is wrong and needs his attention.

Pride and neatness in printing are what everyone wants and when we complete your order for printing you can be satisfied that full count and perfect printing is placed in your order.

There is no sheet of paper too small or too large for us to print.

When you are in the market for Letter Heads, Statements, Envelopes, Cards, Hand Bills, or in fact any kind of printing, communicate with us and our representative will call.

Remember our Bookbinding department is equipped to do any kind of special ruled sheets or manufacture any kind of Blank Books.

With all the added improvements in the latest Automatic machinery which we have installed, places us more than ever in position to reduce our costs considerable on all classes of Printing. Automatic Feeders enable us to do all classes of color work more accurately than ever, for when more than one color is to be printed on the same sheet of paper or in fact where the color is to be struck in connection with the main printed object our Automatic Feeders do the work with exact keenness as there is absolutely no way for the sheet to be printed imperfect.

When you are in the market for printing whether it is for one color or a dozen colors for the same job, take the proposition up with us and we will be pleased to follow your idea or make suggestions.
